

It's Time for Change!

ELECT
RUSS BLUNDEN
UFCW Local 951 President

Russ Blunden:

A Member for the Members

I, Russ Blunden, am one of you. For the past 25 years, I have worked for Meijer, stocking shelves and unloading trailers.

I have seen the problems and hardships our union members face each day — because I face them, too.

Many of our current union leaders have never worked the jobs we have or done the things we have done.

Instead, they are leaders of the worst sort: Those who have no connection to, understanding of, or respect for the membership.

Local 951 doesn't care about us.

The Members Have a Chance to Take Back Their Union

Local 951 is not a union. We have leaders who don't care about us, the members. That is why I, Russ Blunden, am asking for your help.

As president of Local 951, I will make this our union again. Things need to change, and that time for change is now. We, the members, need to acknowledge and address the misuse of power by United Food and Commercial Workers Local 951, and ultimately, help educate and organize the membership to take back its union.

I want to transform Local 951 from a complacent, ineffective, do-nothing union into a helpful, working union that addresses the needs of its membership and does what a union should do: help and protect the people it is meant to serve.

I want a better union, and you deserve a better union.

This election isn't about me. It's about us.

It's time for change.

It's time for Russ Blunden.
